South Heights Christian Classes Code of Conduct Agreement

Academic Dress Code

- Students are expected to dress and groom themselves in a way that reflects basic well-recognized standards of neatness, modesty, and appropriateness in preparation for adulthood.
- South Heights standards are consistent with workplace standards that students will face as adults, so this is good practice for the future.
- Overly casual clothing can undermine a purposeful atmosphere of work and study.
- The dress code is in effect during the academic hours of South Heights even if students are out-of-doors.

Upper body

- Tops and bottoms must overlap so midriff skin is not exposed, even when sitting or raising arms.
- No sleeveless shirts.
- Tops should not have necklines that reveal chest hair or cleavage.

Lower body

- All lower body apparel must be knee-length or longer.
- Clothing worn over form-fitting leg apparel such as leotards and tights must be knee length or longer. For leggings and jeggings, the clothing must cover the posterior in its entirety.
- No underwear showing. (This includes but is not limited to boxers). No substantial rips or tears in clothing above the knees.

PARENT AGREEMENT

As the parent(s), I have read the Code of Conduct, and I agree that I will support my student(s) in following the rules. I accept responsibility for explaining the Code of Conduct including the dress code to my student(s), and I will encourage my students(s) to follow it.

I also understand and accept the discipline system described in the South Heights Code of Conduct found here: <https://www.southheights.net/code-of-conduct.html>

Please initial each line and then sign below.
